The purpose of this club is to promote cooperation and friends among the breeders and owners of Brittany Spaniels, and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittany Spaniels, in the field and in the show ring, to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "bench dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog."

NATIONAL TRIAL JUDGES

COLONEL EDWARD D. McQUOWN

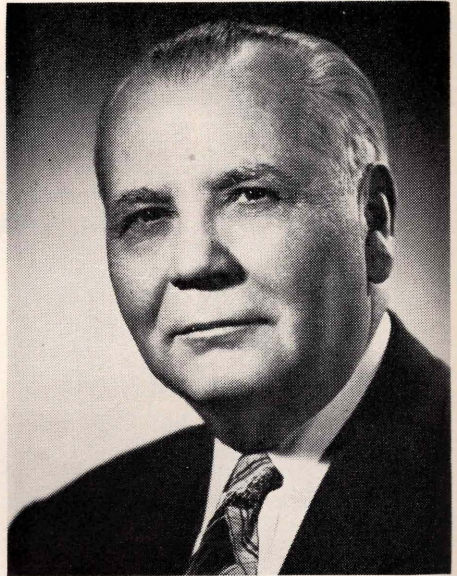

(Judge of National Specialty Show)

Col. McQuown is perfectly qualified to judge the 17th National Specialty Show at the Crab Orchard Field Trial Clubhouse on Nov. 28th. He has been judging all breeds for 35 years and has judged specialties in many different breeds. His past assignments have taken him throughout the entire United States and Canada. He has judged at many of the larger shows such as, Westminster, The International at Chicago, Harbor Cities and Golden Gate in California, Heart of America at Kansas City, Royal Winter Fair at Toronto, Canada.

The American Brittany Club is particularly fortunate in having Col. McQuown judge our "dual dogs", because he is well versed in the ways of dogs in the field as well as on the bench. His field experience started at the age of 5 years when he was given his first dog, an American Water Spaniel. As a young man he owned pointers and setters and briefly ran a pointer, Wildwood Bob, in field trials. Due to the pressure of many judging assignments, Col. McQuown stopped breeding and exhibiting dogs in 1930, and now is a "full time judge."

Col. McQuown's other avocation is the breeding and racing of Standard-bred Horses. He states that his greatest success has been to win all three heats of the Ohio Pacing Derby in 1943 with "The Colonel", establishing a new track record which still stands.

That others think a great deal of Col. Ed McQuown, is well demonstrated in that he was awarded the "Fido" as judge of the year in both 1950 and 1951. "The Fido" in the dog field is roughly equivalent to the "Oscar" in the motion picture field.

Col. Edward D. McQuown.

We are honored to have you as judge for our specialty show, Colonel McQuown, and we all look forward to meeting you personally at Carbondale!

AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

FUTURITY RULES

Section 23: The American Brittany Club Futurity, established for the purpose of encouraging and benefiting owners of Brittany Spaniels is inaugurated by and is conducted under the management of the American Brittany Club.

Conditions and Rules

Each American Brittany Futurity shall be open to every pure-bred Brittany Spaniel bitch bred on or after Oct. 30 of any year, and all her progeny born on or after January 1st of the year following, the dams of which have been duly nominated and whose litters have been enrolled with the American Brittany Club.

All dams nominated and all sires bred to must be registered or eligible for registration.

The trial shall be held on game birds, pheasants or quail, and shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the American Brittany Club. The time and place of the trial shall be announced at least sixty days before the day set for its commencement.

Nominations and entries must be made on blanks furnished, free of charge, by the American Brittany Club.

Nominations of dams must be made within thirty days after the bitches have been bred, at which time the sum of $5 must be paid on each dam nominated. When the litter shall have reached the age of thirty days, the second and final nomination payment of $5.00 must be made. This payment will entitle each puppy of this particular litter to be entered for the American Brittany Futurity Purse after the dog has been properly registered in a recognized stud book such as The American Kennel Club or The Field Dog Stud Book.

Nominations of dams may be made on or after October 30 of any year and shall close positively July 1st of the year following, for the American Brittany Futurity to be run the year subsequent to the closing date.

If a bitch fails to whelp or gives birth to a dead litter, her nominator may substitute another, or transfer the nomination to another person in the same or next succeeding stake, subject to the approval of the American Brittany Club, provided said nominator shall give notice within twenty days after the time the bitch should have whelped. If notification is not made in accordance with this requirement, first nomination fee shall be forfeited.

A single substitution may be made under the same condition governing original nomination.

Entering Dogs

Entries for each American Brittany Futurity shall close August 1st (except when that date falls in Sunday, when it shall be August 2nd) for the current year's trial. On or before August 1st those expecting to start dogs must describe their entries on entry blanks furnished free of charge by the American Brittany Club, and pay on each a forfeit fee of $15.00. A starting fee must be paid, in addition, before the drawing. The drawing shall take place the day before the date announced for the trial to be run. Dogs must be registered. No dog may start until the registration number of that dog has been received by the field trial secretary.

The nominating, forfeit fees will be pooled and after deducting expenses of the stake, including 10% for the American Brittany Club, the balance will constitute the purse. The purse will be divided two-thirds to the owners of the winner and one-third to breeders of winners; both owner's and winner's divisions of the purse to be divided:

- (1) 40-25-20 and 15 if there are four moneys paid. Four moneys shall be paid if there are more than 16 starters.
- (2) 45-30-25 if there are three moneys paid. Three moneys shall be paid if there are 16 or less starters.

TO HERRIN

Attention Ladies . . .

The Belloaks Kennels wish to announce a Trophy for YOU to be known as the BELLOAKS GINGER MEMORIAL

The Large Vase is a Rotating Trophy. The Small Vase is to be given the winner each year as a Permanent Trophy

To be awarded to the best dog handled by a WOMAN AMATEUR HANDLER in the NATIONAL AMATEUR STAKE.

At least three entries handled by women must participate or the trophy will not be awarded that year unless a dog handled by a woman amateur places in the Stake. With three or more entries handled by women the dog does not have to place in the Stake in order to win this trophy, but the judges will be asked to signify which dog handled by a woman amateur did the best job.

Will be retired when Amateur Stake is won by a woman!

We hope to see all you women out qualifying your dogs at the regionals this Fall and making the men really work to try and beat you in the National.

MARCELLE and JIM BELL

WASHINGTON BRITTANY CLUB

by John Jarvis

The Washington Brittany Club's fall trial ran true to the highest form. Sixty-three (63) entries worked an average of five wild birds per brace on the drawn sequence of ten courses. Cooling air from the mountains rimming the Ellensburg valley softened the bright warmth through most of both days.

The committee worked up the program through a series of three nesting season picnics on planted birds in suburban barn lots. A fourth rally explored the courses in a new type free-for-all event. This culminating test of hunting ability under actual field conditions produced all varieties of excellence—no quarter asked or given.

In the very first brace of the Open stake, Dr. Sullivan, of Berkeley, California, longest traveler and honored national Brittany Club officer, handled Dual Champion Paul's White Flash to a perfect find on a pheasant rooster. Watching every angle of this open work, Judges Ernie Code and Dave Gordon entered notes in their scores and ultimately pronounced it third place. Second brace found trainer Stan Aeck's front companion on many a trek here and in Canada scooting boldly out to pinpoint a young hen for second placement. Watching this taut little bitch quiver proudly, tail and nose high, is an unforgettable lesson in true Brittany style by Helmer's GiGi.

The only possible way to top these performances would be to tick off—say about six, real intent, accurate finds plus a back or two and a thorough, driving, bird-wise race, etc. etc. . . . So it was with the winner, Jagger de Ferncrest in the third brace. This is the third staunch Brittany handled for hunting and competition by this owner starting with their well-known sire, Jacques de Ferncroft, now deceased. The tremendous efforts of the succeeding braces added up to a fourth for Bert Heinz' bitch, Suzanne, handled by Stan Aeck. Elmer Flack's entries ran well as always but proved too young for seasoned work in new terrain. Other strong entries starting under the well known trainer Tom Cox, now of Portland from back east, were not yet mannerly on birds at this first stop on the West Coast Circuit. Ed Keefe's Sputnik orbited out real big into an overwhelming galaxy of birds. So bounced Tigger Too.

President Art Stavik enjoyed the banquet menu of steaks, smiles all around, and no speeches. Doubling as judge with Bert Heinz, he handed first and fourth Open Puppy ribbons to expectant Don Frederickson. Herron's Smokey was crowded at second place by Jack Little's brilliant young bird-finder, a close third. He then called the Open Derby for six next morning and adjourned for early bed.

Again the first brace proved tough with fourth place for Elmer Flack's entry from Danville, California. Runciman's Scat-Back looked like third. Gary Frey held Frey Haven Temper in view for a wide, fast second place. All of us watching the finished manners and consistent pace of John Taylor's Tammy, up from Eugene, Oregon, agreed that is was the outstanding Derby entry.

First Amateur brace found Paul's White Flash and Jagger de Ferncrest at it hammer and tongs again with birds in the air to place second and third respectively. It was the lot of Fred Hutchinson to follow Lady Jane Pug-gins through a wind squall on the last course late that evening for fourth place. But this day was claimed far and away by Glen and Betty Helmer's GiGi who piled not less than five flawless and exciting finds onto several perfect backs to sweep the field including the high, rotating Metzger Nancy trophy!

Walking alertly and courageously through both the open and amateur gun dog stakes, Judges Ernie Code and Dave Gordon again endeared themselves to the Brittany crowd. Such an overwhelming turn-out once more proved the owner's preference for gun dog type contests run on multiple courses with wild birds vs. the contrasts of either hacked-up wonders paraded on single course areas into planted birds or the big-going horizon-splitters chased on horses at all-age field trials.

Club Secretary-Treasurer, Paul Whalen, a licensed accountant by tradition not only works cheerfully and efficiently, but shows a neat profit as well. Next event in a similar pattern is promised at Moses Lake in the spring with a gesture toward all of our Brittany friends at Spokane and the Richland area. Shall we all try to make it?

BUCKEYE BRITTANY CLUB

by Carl Berner

The Buckeye Brittany Club held their Fall Field Trials this past weekend at the Rush Run Wildlife Area in Probler County. Good bird work can always be expected here because of the Adequate supply of upland game. The Division of Wildlife plants food strips of grain which birds like. Many organized sporting dog groups hold their spring and fall trials at Rush Run.

Weather conditions were not satisfactory. Summer temperatures prevailed along with high humidity. The weeds were high. The cover was heavy. The ground was hard and dry. Owners could have been excused for not having entered their dogs under these conditions. But they came anyway, from New Hampshire to Alabama. And from many of the central states. Most times you look for class in the dog. Well, with temperatures in the upper 80's the handlers had to have it too.

Results however—from all the stakes were pleasantly surprising to judges, handlers and gallery alike. The Derby entries really showed class, they're youngsters coming along. They are like minor league baseball players being scouted for the majors. To the judges they all looked good and it was a job to pick any of the ribbon winners. So look out at Carbondale National Trials.

Penny's Happy Pepi, 1st Open All Age.

Skywoods Tantivy, 1st Amateur All Age.

The Ohio Division of Parks is also to be commended for "comforting" additions. Even though located on the bird field, it's so much better than the high weed cover of previous years.

BENCH SHOWS? BRITTANIES? AND JUDGES?

by Morris C. Smith
(Susquehanna Club)

At the very considerable risk of being identified as a sorehead, I would like to voice my personal views on the combination of subjects that form the title, with the hope that Brittany owners will re-read their breed standards and that, perhaps, those in an influential position can do their bit to see that the judges assigned to Britts do the same.

My observation of persons who have just obtained their first Britt leads me to believe that most people buy their first Britt as a direct result of association with another of the pointing breeds; as such their first interest after some familiarity with the dog and club activities is Field Trials. This is a normal and healthy approach, and if the Britt is to avoid the degeneration that has occurred in so many other of the sporting breeds the place of the Britt in the field must always come first.

But Bench Shows, if the Britt is to be a true Dual Dog, have a definite place in the scheme of things. There should be no better way to prove the bodily conformation of a dog, with the ideal of finding whether a given dog has the genetic traits that we hope to see developed and expanded in future generations, than Bench Shows. There isn't much use fighting it: great dogs are created, they don't just happen, and conformation is hereditary. This in no way belittles the importance of Field Trials; this is the opposite side of the Dual Dog make-up, and does not concern this discussion.

The various regional clubs, in their never-ending search for better judges of the Britt in Field Trials, spare no effort, and an incompetent judge is soon black-balled by the simple expedient of not placing his name on the list of approved judges. And yet we meekly submit to the assigned judge when we place a Britt in a Bench Show. This, obviously, doesn't make much sense.

I hasten to add that there is a pretty obvious way to overcome this deficiency: go thru the process of becoming a licensed Bench-Show Sponsoring club, in the same manner that a license is obtained for Field Trials, and hold your own Bench Shows, in conjunction with Field Trials, and pick your own judge. This is the plan suggested by the National Organization. There is only one flaw in it: the same organization reluctantly admits that the plan is nearly, if not entirely, unworkable, because all of the time available on a given weekend Field Trial is necessary for that trial. What is the option? Apparently the only one is to work within the framework of the local Bench Show sponsoring organization.

But the Brittany, cursed with the Spaniel appendage, is all too often identified with and grouped with the true spaniels, all too many of which long ago forgot what a bird or a bird-field looked like, and became "pretty" show dogs.

This word association often leads to the Britt being judged, in the conformation classes, by the same judge who has just finished looking at the "pretty" spaniels—and is, more often than not, a fancier of one or more of these breeds. Here lies one of the greatest evils of present-day Brittany judging.

The Brittany is not and so far as I find out was never intended to be a "pretty" spaniel. He can't be: he is meant to be a truly functional field dog, and that is not compatible with "prettiness." All that a Brittany enthusiast should want, or ask, from a judge is whether that dog fulfills the well-written standards. For his part, the enthusiast has every right to expect competent, impartial judging.

The weak link in the chain, in one person's humble opinion, is the judges.

It would be a fine thing if a regional club, operating within the framework of a show-sponsoring organization, was able to guarantee a large enough entry to force the sponsoring club to select a special judge for Britts; it is even possible that this is now happening in a few cases. But in almost all cases, I'm sure, the entry is too small to allow dictation. What then? I would surely recommend that the regional club insist on being judged by the same judge who is working the pointers and setters. This is not a cure-all: most of the pointers and setters being shown today are also far-removed from the bird-field, but it is the lesser of the two evils. And, above all, if there is any way possible that the judge can be furnished a copy of the breed standards prior to the show—do it; always in an official manner, in behalf of the regional club.

Essentially, what should a competent breed judge be looking for? Well, height limits are becoming increasingly important. The Britt must be big enough and strong enough to stand an all-day hunt, but not so big as to become a setter. The limitations on weight dictate pretty much the same thing: an overweight Britt can't run all day. The emphasis on running gear is very important: if he can't run he can't hunt.

Color, and/or ticking, is influencing present-day judges to too great a degree. Two different colors are permitted, ticking is desirable, and no limitations are put on roan factors. With a truly competent judge color, so long as not spelled out as illegal, should be the very last thing viewed. Indeed, it should require two dogs finishing in a dead heat in all other factors before a judge even sees color.

I do not propose to argue with the standards. I like them just as they are. I do propose that all of us look at them, and learn them. When was the last time you read them?

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA BRITTANY CLUB, Inc.

by Ben W. Keefe

The Northern California Brittany Club held its annual spring trial at the State Fish and Game Commission Grounds on Grizzly Island near Fairfield, California on March 7th and 8th. The Trial was run on two courses using hen peasants supplied by Fish and Game. The cover was good and weather conditions excellent. A new record was established for our West Coast trials since 86 starters saw action. We were favored with an unusually large number of out of state guests. Among our guests were Louis Tippet and Everett Metzger of the Oregon Club and Mike Burgwin and Ed Keefe of The Washington Club plus a fine group from Central and Southern California.

We originally intended to run the trial on one course but the record entry saw Trial Chairman Bill Rodda and his assistants hurriedly set up a second course and impress Mike Burgwin as an emergency judge. Mike graciously consented to withdraw Ripple and did a fine job of judging our puppy and amateur stakes together with Rollie Mann of Woodland. Our all age and derby stakes were judged by Dr. Phillip Thunen of Marysville and Roy Scauceman of Woodland who won the admiration of all when they called for another look at several derbys in contention despite the late hour and the impending rush to catch the ferry.

A very fine Judges Dinner was held at the Colonial Inn at Fairfield on Saturday evening at which time many new members were welcomed into our ranks.

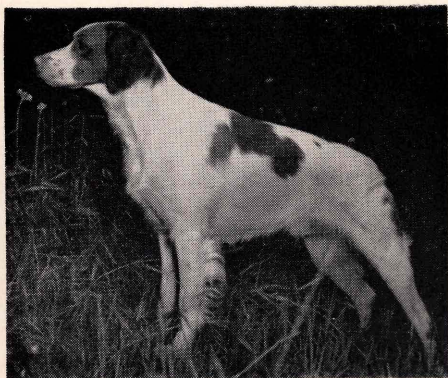

The placements were as follows.

APEN ALL AGE

- 1st Lancer of Richmond, owner and handler, James Gosnell.
- 2nd Ouragan Jerry's Bob, owner and handler, Frank Gilbert.
- 3rd Paul's White Flash, Russ Cook handler, Dr. J. M. Sullivan, owner.

Open All Age—N.C.B.C.—First, Lancer of Richmond, owner-handler, James Gosnell; 2nd, Ouragan Jerry's Bob, owner-handler, Frank Gilbert; 3rd, Paul's White Flash, owner, Dr. J. M. Sullivan, handler, Russ Cook; 4th, Beau Kiki, owner-handler, E. L. Phillips.

Lunds Trooper—1st Open Puppy and 3rd Open Derby.

4th Beau Kiki, owner and handler,
E. L. Phillips.

OPEN PUPPY

- 1st Lund's Trooper, owned by Gilda and Ejner Lund, handled by Ejner.
- 2nd Sutter Basin Happy, owner and handler, Ronnie Pearson.
- 3rd Deborah's Trojan Patrick, owner and handler, Phyllis Scarbrough.
- 4th Top Brass, owner and handler, Clyde Terry.

OPEN DERBY

- 1st Evergray's Tic Toc Tommy, owner and handler, Everett Metzger.
- 2nd Tabby Jet Duval, owner and handler, Robert McConnell.
- 3rd Lund's Trooper, owned by Gilda and Ejner Lund, handled by Ejner.
- 4th Richmond's Rockette, handled by Russ Cook, owned by Dr. J. M. Sullivan.

AMATEUR ALL AGE

- 1st Beau Kiki, owner and handler, E. L. Phillips.
- 2nd Chassuer Breton, owner and handler, Hector Pratt, Jr.
- 3rd Buena Vista Beau, handler Bob Ellis, owner T. McWhorter Jr.
- 4th Mon Capitaine Duval, owner and handler, Ben Keefe.

Your reporter was far too involved as Trial Secretary to do much in the way of following the dogs but I was fortunate in being at the right place at the right time to see one high light of the trial. Lancer of Richmond, running in the Open All Age, ran a beautiful back course, and, entering the bird field well in advance of his handler, braked to a high style point and held staunchly during the prolonged time his handler required to reach him. Lancer had one more productive point and handled both birds nicely to take first.

M. LE JAB

Since this is the time of your Trials Nationales, I feel the need of a few words in this regard. Participants coming from places of much variation will meet together to decide the best dog of this year in each of the four events to be considered. This is factual and known to all. However, I suggest the greater reason for the individual to attend this trial. An event of this magnitude offers much opportunity for the observation and learning. One riding in the gallery should keep this in the forefront of the mind. All are present to observe and appreciate excellence of performance, with no thought to where the dog has his origin or who holds the ownership. This broad view is welcome to many who have become discouraged with the provincialism and partisanship sometimes seen at the regional trials. The true fancier and lover of the Brittany can appreciate good work in the pure sense whenever he sees it. To observe this and become one who can so appreciate, is in itself worth the whole time and effort of the Nationals.

At one time at the le Jab chalet, a guest was heard to remark about the chickens being present in the kitchen at the same time that he was at dinner, and complained that this would spoil the appetite. Mon Pere replied that it might at first, but in time the chickens would get accustomed to it and eat again. In a small way this illustrates that one can come to accept a thing as normal and universal because he sees it frequently in his usual range of vision. It is not until one gets the broader view that he can compare this with what is considered good in other places.

So then, consider the Nationals as a post graduate course in appreciation of the Brittany. Observe, consider, and learn. In a new and brighter light, we can all see places for improvement in our own local trials, our standards, and in our own dogs.

This to me is one purpose of prime importance accomplished by the National Trials. My added hope is that each member will some day take part in this post graduate course and so improve ourselves and our Brittanies.

HUDSON VALLEY BRITTANY CLUB

by Carlton Lephart

On September 12 and 13 the Hudson Valley Brittany Club held its fall trial on the new trial grounds which are owned by the New York State Health Department. The weather had cooled down and both days were bright, sunny and cool. Perfect weather for running dogs.

The capable judges for all stakes were Howard Sweet of Marathon, New York and Elbert Thomas of Lebanon Springs, New York.

Connecticut Yankee with two finds came in to win in the Open All Age Stake. He had very good manners on his birds and ran a steady back course. Hildy, second place dog, had a consistent forward pattern with 1 find and a relocation which she handled well. King and Jig had one find each.

John Dall brought Tichnogen through an exceptional job of wide running to win the Puppy Stake. The 2nd and 3rd place puppies would have also been winners in most any trial.

The Derby Stake was quite competitive some very good work shown. First place dog was Belloaks Oz with excellent running qualities. Clem of Helderberg took second honors with 3 finds on the back course and was steady. Dr. Crandall's Vixen Fox shows much promise.

The happiest man in New York State was Al Weigel who's still walking on the clouds because Jig is now a dual champion. Jig displayed perfect manners on his two finds and ran a very consistent back course, taking top place in the Amateur. We might add that Mildred is really the owner of the dog and the two of them are soaring somewhere between Albany and the state of Massachusetts in outer space. Sham took 2nd place with a very good back course and 1 find. Both the 3rd place and 4th place dogs were handled by Marcelle Bell. King ran well with one find in the bird field and Ibbly ran a rather restricted back course, had three finds, but could not resist a slight chase when her brace mate bumped a bird.

Amateur All Age—Hudson Valley—1st, Jig de Kaymore, owner, Mildred Weigel, handler, Al Weigel; 2nd, Helgramite Shamandre, owner-handler, W. E. Stevenson; 3rd, Belloaks King, owner, J. B. Bell, Jr., handler, Marcelle Bell; 4th Belloaks Ibbly, owner-handler, Marcelle Bell.

The air was really blue when the decision was announced at the Indiana State Field Trial Association Trial Sept. 21st at Versailles, Indiana. There were 26 pointers and setters and one lone Brittany entered in the Amateur All Age Stake. Fld. Ch. Ferdinand of Lee-way, the only Brittany, was awarded the blue ribbon, and some disgruntled owners were heard to remark, "they'd have to get a Brittany!" Actually it was because Ferd had the only perfect bird work; his race did not match that of some of the pointers and setters in class etc. Luckily John was not present on Sunday when the decision was announced, but he gratefully accepted the trophy and a leg on the sterling rotating punch bowl trophy. Incidentally, Ferd's handler was John Lee.

The men have their work cut out for them. Marcelle Bell and Ibbey attended the Ladies Field Trial held by the Nutmeg Field Trial Club at Fairfield, Conn. on the 11th of October. There were 18 entries—pointers, setters, short hairs, and Gordon Setters — and of course, one Brittany. Marcelle and Ibbey took home the blue ribbon, a lovely bowl to keep for one year and a hearth rug. In testimony of the fact that a Brittany winner was unexpected, the design on the rug featured a pointer and a setter. Will they never learn???

In keeping with our greatest aim, to keep the Brittany "Forever a dual dog", the publishers of THE AMER-ICAN BRITTANY have been busy composing a set of rules for the establishment of a bench futurity. The basic nominations and entries will run much as they do for our established field futurity, and copies of the proposed rules will be available for your inspection and criticism at the Nationals in November this year. If you do not plan to attend, but are interested in this project, please contact Ann White, 301 N. Second Street, Chillicothe, Ill.

SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND
BRITTANY CLUB, INC.

by Alice M. Machlett

The Fall Field Trial of the Southern New England Brittany Club, Inc. was held at Helgramite Hollow in Brewster, N. Y. on October 3rd and 4th.

Saturday was slightly overcast and comfortably cool, but Sunday turned sunny and hot.

Quail were used and were good, strong flying birds.

The judging, both days, was in the capable hands of Mr. Donald Halsey of Pittsfield, Mass., and Mr. Truman Cowles of Manchester, Conn., and the Club is grateful for their services.

PUPPY STAKE

13 Dogs

The winner of this stake was Provo's Penny, owned and handled by Rodney Jenkins of Hudson, Mass. Penny ran an energetic race, covering more ground than other entries, and showing natural potentialities and outstanding class.

Second came Kay Ricochet, R. E. Jenkins of Armonk, N. Y., owner and handler. Kay covered ground in a free moving style and showed natural qualities, though her race was not quite so forward as Penny's.

Third place went to Duke of Longford, owned and handled by Rev. Thos. M. Riley of Oswego, N. Y. Duke ran an intelligent, consistent race, though not quite as big as the two top placers, and had one nice find. He needs a little more maturity, but was potentially the best of the puppies.

Bob White, S. Wykoff of Paterson, N. J., owner and handler, won fourth place with a good, but not too consistent race. He was perhaps handicapped by running as a bye dog. He had one good point and an enthusiastic chase.

OPEN ALL AGE

13 dogs

Helgramite Tinker, W. E. Stevenson, Jr. of Attleboro, Mass., owner and handler, made his first place win count, as it completed his Field Trial Championship. Tinker ran an industrious, intelligent race and had two finds, the first of which required intelligent handling; the second clean all the way, with Tinker covering all likely spots without handling. Tinker also won the first leg of the Helgramite Hollow Memorial Trophy, presented by Mr. Dean S. Edmonds.

Brit de la Fontaine Vallee, owned by H. Farnsworth of Andover, Mass., and handled by Phil Morehouse of Salem Depot, N. H., took second place with a sound race showing a good pattern. He covered the likely spots, and had a solid find. He too ran as a bye.

Third place was won by Traphel's

Du. Ch. Jig de Kaymore, owned by Mildred Weigel of Methuen, Mass. and handled by Phil Morehouse, started running well but seemed to tire. Jig had one unproductive, one good steady find, and work on one running bird. Jig placed fourth.

DERBY STAKE

10 Dogs

Winner of the Derby Stake, Kaymore, s T.N.T. Sittin Britty, owned by Mark Senior of Ridgefield, Conn., and handled by Phil Morehouse, ran way out ahead, showing enthusiasm, drive and punch and hitting birdy spots stylishly. Britt handled very well.

Second place went to Meg's Bunco Belle, Marguerite Jenkins owner, James Jenkins handler. Belle ran well but handled poorly in the first series. On call back she handled well and had a good find. Belle is a real prospect.

Ashurst Doc, owned by H. Farnsworth and handled by Phil Morehouse came in third. Doc made some nice casts, but seemed immature for a Derby. He had a nice find.

Fourth place was won by Whippy II, owned and handled by A. Meester of North Haledon, N. J. Whippy ran a good honest race in the first series, but on call back couldn't seem to get geared. She had a nice find, but it took time.

AMATEUR GUN DOG STAKE

19 Dogs

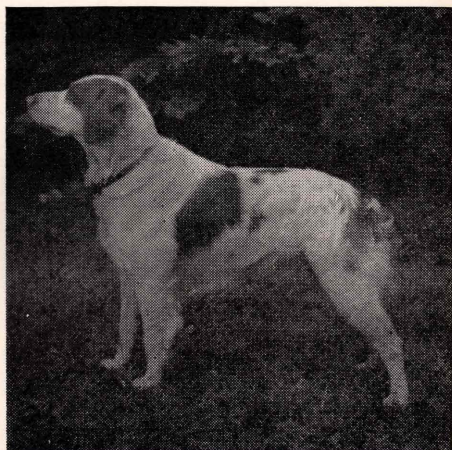

Du. Ch. Belloaks King, J. M. Bell, Jr. owner, Marcelle Bell, handler, won this stake with a good race for the most part. At one point he seemed to tire, perhaps from the heat, but soon got his second wind. King had two clean finds.

F. T. Ch. Tinker, W. E. Stevenson, Jr., owner and handler, started well, but wasted some minutes on a deer. Tinker had a good find, a stop to flush, and an unproductive, to place second.

Third place went to Chip's Get, Leon Gordon of Bedford Hills, N. Y., owner and handler. Get is a real hunting dog, putting a lot in his race. He had two finds, broke, but stopped to command.

Misty, fourth place winner, owner and handled by H. Marr of Albany, N. Y., applied herself well on back course, and had one steady find on covey in hedgerow; then two sketchy contacts with birds in the same area. Misty ran out a bird in the bird field, but stopped to command.

Dual Ch. Helgramite Tarquinius.

More sad news from W. E. "Steve" Stevenson. Dual Ch. Helgramite Tarquinius still has not been found. Then, came a second blow to the Stevenson's, Dual Ch. Helgramite Howie d'Acajou disappeared from the Stevenson yard one afternoon recently. Both dogs had the run of the yard and house and always returned to whistle or call. Inquiries to all agencies in a 50 mile radius have failed to turn up any information on either dog, so the Stevenson's fear that they might have been stolen. Any information on either dog will be greatly appreciated by the Stevenson's and by all of those that have known and long admired these two fine dogs.
